Information online: is it reliable?

Information on the internet may not be accurate or reliable. It may be used for bias, manipulation or persuasion.

The internet contains fact, fiction and opinion. Ask yourself: is this reliable? Check with a trusted adult!

Use strategies to verify information, e.g. cross-checking

Be careful when using an internet search for images.

Most images, videos and music are protected by copyright. Be careful: don't be a copycat!
