What can Wells Cathedral and Christian beliefs teach about justice, responsibility and reconciliation in connection to transatlantic slavery?

Key Texts

The Good Samaritan is a story told by Jesus. It tells of a man who was attacked by robbers and left hurt by the side of the road. Several people saw him but chose not to help. Later, a Samaritan stopped, cared for the injured man, and made sure he was safe.

Jesus Heals the Leper is a story from the Bible about a man suffering from leprosy, a serious skin disease. In Jesus' time, people with leprosy were often excluded from society because others were afraid of catching the disease. The man approached Jesus and asked to be healed. Jesus showed compassion by touching him and saying, "Be clean." The man was healed immediately.
